

Loretta Lynn, You're Still Loving Me

(Jay Lee Webb - Johnny Wilson)

I've seen you walkin' through the door a thousand times before
But you're still here with me
And each time my tears began this could really be the end oh I just know you're gone
But each time you start to leave you turn around and look at me
And my love is there to see
I run into your arms once more like so many times before
And you're still loving me
With all the hurt that I have shown it's a wonder you're not gone
But you're still here with me
All the mean things that I say it must be hard for you to stay
It's made me love you more
I'm gonna make it up to you love you like you want me to anything you ask I'll do
We must be doing something right cause you're here with me tonight
And you're still loving me
And I thank God for sending you to me you're the understanding love that I need
And everything I took away I gave it back to yesterday
And I thank God that you're still loving me
