Loretta Lynn, You're Still Loving Me

(Jay Lee Webb - Johnny Wilson)

I've seen you walkin' through the door a thousand times before

But you're still here with me

And each time my tears began this could really be the end oh I just know you're gone But each time you start to leave you turn around and look at me

And my love is there to see

I run into your arms once more like so many times before

And you're still loving me

With all the hurt that I have shown it's a wonder you're not gone

But you're still here with me

All the mean things that I say it must be hard for you to stay

It's made me love you more

I'm gonna make it up to you love you like you want me to anything you ask I'll do

We must be doing something right cause you're here with me tonight

And you're still loving me

And I thank God for sending you to me you're the understanding love that I need

And everything I took away I gave it back to yesterday

And I thank God that you're still loving me
