

Lorrie Morgan, Take Me As I Am

Baby don't turn out the light
I wanna see you look at me
Whisper only truth tonight
Not just promises and empty fantasies

I don't need a bed of roses
Cause roses whither away
All I really need is honesty from
Someone with a strong heart
A gentle hand, who'll take me as I am

Baby I need for you to know just exactly how I feel
Fiery passions come and go
I'd trade a million pretty words
For one touch that is real

I don't need a bed of roses
Cause roses whither away
All I really need is honesty from
Someone with a strong heart
A gentle hand, who'll take me as I am

Whoa, I don't need a bed of roses
Cause roses whither away
All I really need is honesty from
Someone with a strong heart
A gentle hand, who'll take me as I am

Ooh yea, from someone with a strong heart
A gentle hand, who'll take me as I am
