

Los Lonely Boys, Tell Me Why

We've been together for years
You for me and me for you, my dear
It seems you're changing your song
Your tune is flat and all the words are wrong
Please tell me why
You never acted like this
You never turned away from my kiss
Who am I with, I can't tell
Our life was good but now it's something else
Please tell me why
Why do you hurt me the way that you do
That's not fair, I wouldn't do it to you
Our bed's so cold and covered in lies
Oh why?!
Tell me why

porque te portas así?
porque me echaste mentiras a mí?
Me duele en el corazón
Me duele mucho con una pasión
Dime porque?

Why do you hurt me the way that you do?
That's not fair, I wouldn't do it to you
Our bed's so cold and covered in lies
Oh why?!
Hey hey, yeah
Tell me why
