

Loser, Faithless

She has almost faded, almost faded away
Life gets complicated, giving up everything
She feels less than perfect, scars don't fade away
Hands hide eyes of burden, purity she prays
Going under
I'm not going under
Going under
I'm not going under
Going under
I'm not going under
But all I know is I've lost all my faith
She has shows in darkness, dreams lie in decay
She cries every morning, make it all go away
Going under
I'm not going under
Going under
I'm not going under
Going under
I'm not going under
But all I know is I've lost all my faith
Stay with me for one more night
I just want this to end
(Stay with me)
Stay with me here by my side
'Cause I just need a friend
(Stay with me)
