

Loser, Girl like you

It feels like this day's going nowhere
I hate to complain but I'm lonely
I need to spend time with a girl like you
A girl like you
I don't know you, but I have to have a girl like you
I would go through anything to have a girl like you
When I find you, I will hold on to a girl like you
Yeah, I want you, 'cause I have to have you
You can complain about your problems
You can do anything, I'd still want you
I'd never never escape from a girl like you
It's not just the way that you're moving
Or the way that your eyes see right through me
A girl like you
I don't know you, but I have to have a girl like you
I would go through anything to have a girl like you
When I find you, I will hold on to a girl like you
Yeah, I want you, 'cause I have to have you
It feels like this day's going nowhere
I hate to complain but I'm lonely
A girl like you
I don't know you, but I have to have a girl like you
I would go through anything to have a girl like you
When I find you, I will hold on to a girl like you
Yeah, I want you, 'cause I have to have you
