

Lostprophets, Miles Away From Nowhere

Funny, it seems like a scene from the movies.
Wasn't long ago that we told you about all the times you never made the grade.
You never listened, never interested in playing with fire.
I know what you think and where you go.
You said "I'd be there sitting by your side";
Wash it all away.
All away.
And you tell me:
Never been bored.
And you hide me,
I'll not be the one.
Sorry if I just don't understand you.
Its just I'm not good with people shouting in my ears.
I never thought for a second that
I'd be that scared of higher plains.
On my own, seem that bored
And you tell me:
Never been bored
And you hide me,
I'll not be the one.
In my eyes.
Feel so bored.
So bored.....in my eyes.
Feel so bored.
My side, my eyes.
so..old.
So, hide me too
