

Lostprophets, We Bring An Arsenal

Bite that lip,
Cause your tongue is a gun and your brain is the trigger,
Fire at will,
Oh I doubt that mouth could get any bigger,
Live in hypocrisy, those skies are always sunny,
You're never gonna be a threat to anybody.

You're lying, you're lying,
You're gonna be the one left crying.

If you bring a gun, baby, we'll bring an arsenal,
If you think we're done, baby, we'll bring it, we'll sing it,
Open your eyes and see you won't know we're coming,
You're never gonna be a threat to anybody.

You'll never get this dance tonight,
So split, oh you can run till you're done but the shame will never leave ya,
Had your fun, was it worth all the time getting people to believe ya?
Open your eyes and see it never was that funny,
You're never gonna be a threat to anybody.

You're lying, you're lying,
You're gonna be the one left crying.

If you bring a gun, baby, we'll bring an arsenal,
If you think we're done, baby, we'll bring it, we'll sing it,
Open your eyes and see you won't know we're coming,
You're never gonna be a threat to anybody,

You're lying, you're lying,
You're gonna be the one left crying,
You're lying, you're lying,
You're never satisfied,

You're lying, you're lying,
You're gonna be the one left crying,
You're lying, you're lying,
Till there's no one on your side.

If you bring a gun, baby, we'll bring an arsenal,
If you think we're done, baby, we'll bring it, we'll sing it..

If you bring a gun, baby, we'll bring an arsenal,
If you think we're done, baby, we'll bring it, we'll sing it,
Open your eyes and see you won't know we're coming,
You're never gonna be a threat to anybody,

A threat to anybody
A threat to anybody
A threat to anybody
