

Lou Reed, Vanishing Act

It must be nice to disappear to have a vanishing act
to always be looking forward and never looking back

How nice it is to disappear
float into a mist
with a young lady on your arm
looking for a kiss

It might be nice to disappear
never look over your back

to always be moving forward
and never looking back
