

Louise, When Will My Heart Beat Again

Written By: Plato/Nurding/Lowis

I had you love here in my arms
Slip through my fingers like grains of sand
I was so young then tender and true, to you

I should have realized baby
And not let you go
'Cos I'm not contented
With holding your shadow

When will my heart beat again
When will I know you're true in my eyes
When will I love like before
When we were more
More than just friends
When will my heart beat again

Oh no yeah

I know that love can come and go
All with no meaning that's hard to control
Now I that first love is so hard to find inside

I need you here now baby
Wipe the tear from my eye
'Cos I never missed the water till
The world ran dry

When will my heart beat again
When will I know you're true in my eyes
When will I love like before
When we were more
More than just friends
When will my heart beat again

Is there anybody loving you with confection
Is there anybody holding you tonight

Can you really say
That this love will last forever
Tell me I've seen
When you slept with her
Tell me I've seen
Will you ever think of me

Oh yeah
I know
Baby, baby, baby, tell me

When will my heart beat again
When will I know your true in my eyes
When will I love like before
When we were more
More than just friends
When will my heart beat again

When will my heart beat again
When will my heart beat again
When will I know your true in my eyes
When will I love like before?
When we were more
More than just friends

When will my heart beat again

When will my heart beat again
When will my heart beat again
When will I know your true in my eyes
When will I love like before
When we were more
More than just friends
When will my heart beat again

repeat to fade
