

Love Like Blood, Colours Of Perversity

how did you come to this strategy? do you want to show us the reality?
but all your messages are meaningless and provocation is not your business you are the sucking sponges in our brains you are the cold acid in our veins dance dance dance to the violence sing sing sing to the killing united colours of perversity

the most stupid bastards of your shop will even know how to achieve the aims advertise for the things you sell, advertise but no pictures of an overground hell

sweet and sour, contrasts do attract?
