

Low, Soon

Soon, it will be over.
I laughed under my breath, over your shoulder.
There's a message out tonight,
Nobody's looking at the sky.

Soon, it will be over.
I laughed under my breath, over your shoulder.
You think that I don't know your name,
And now your face is all in flames.

You think that I don't know your name,
And now we'll stand there all amazed.
