

Luba, 'even In The Darkest Moments'

we make our committments then forget what we have said we pledge our persistance and then we turn our heads this covenant is sacred when the vows come from the heart but can we promise to be faithful even in the even in the dark
even in the darkest
even in the darkest moments
I will be there
I will be there
we'll make this commitment and then forget the rest we've said no matter time or distance you know that I'll be there it's eaiser to walk on it's so easy when it's hard but if love is our conviction then even in the
repeat chorus
