

Lucerin Blue, A Monday In Vegas

Where is the humility
Inside of this mission
When did you suddenly decide
Decide on this vision
I could have tried harder, to deal well with this

Who told you it was ok to run tonight?

How do I show you
How you make me feel
How do I show you
How I feel
A Monday in Vegas
That was real

What can I say to you
I need more defenses
You seem to think that I
Deserve your pretenses
I could have tried harder, to deal well with this

But you leave me exhausted
Thats what I miss

We're running this together,
That what I miss
