

Lucero, I Don't Wanna Be The One

I don't wanna be the one who misses you at night
I don't wanna be the one who's always left behind
I don't wanna be the one who's getting in your way
I don't wanna be the one who loses everything
When I wake up I just wonder where you are
And late at night I been taking it way too far
It's too much to take I can't be the one
I don't wanna be the one to walk this endless street
I don't wanna be the one who's got nowhere else to be
I don't wanna be the one that wants you so damn much
I don't wanna be the one that's running outta luck
