

Lucero, The Only One

she never says hi to me no more and that's a pretty good way for her to even the score things went bad, i guess it don't mean much she used to say i was the only one
she never even looks my way no more and i can hear her talking through the bedroom door she's not here for me, cause we're all done i know damn well i was the only one
