

Lucie Silvas, Love You This Much

Verse: I've looked at you a thousand times and only now i see everything i hoped to find, staring back at me, like waking up to a sunrise, with colours i've not seen before

When your lying there asleep, i look at you and smile, gives me time to stop and think, like i made it all worthwhile, it's so easy to forget, i never noticed all the little things you do, that make me realise

Chorus: And i love though it may not show, not sure i ever told you so, and now everything that i was looking for has lead me right here to your door, i love you this much and more woah woah mo-o-o-re, oh-oh-ohhh

Verse: We know that everything has changed, thats just the way we are, we dont know what the future brings, we havent got that far, the way i feel remains the same, coz its just the little things we say and do that makes us who we are

Chorus:

Verse: you're beautiful, you're wonderful, you make it all believable you're everything my heart can take, now i know that all i feel and all i've ever felt was real i've gotta find the words when you're away
oh-oh-ohh

Chorus:

oh yeh yeh yeh more, mo-o-o-o-re
