

Luckdown, Never Began

to open up my eyes will reveal the lies.
all i've done, has been true.

i can't stand on one leg for so long.
i'm going to fall and lose it all.

all i've done, has been true.

i'll dive face first into the flames,
a dive face first straight into pain.
this shows what i've gone through.

all i've done, has been true.

7:46 and i'm alone
this shows what i've gone through.
