

Lucky 7, Blamed

When I try to make ammends for harmless things I've done to all my so-called friends Well then I change my mind and I don't fell ashamed for all I know I'm better off this way
No one wants to be the one whos blamed

Well I do the best I can to get through life and contribute to my fellow man but then I'll take it back and I don't feel ashamed
for all i know i'm better off this way
Cause no one wants to be the one whos blamed

When I try to make ammends
for harmless things I've done to my so-called friends I'm not ashamed
for all I know I'm better off this way
No one wants to be the one whos blamed
