Lucky Dube, Jah Live

Jah live Jah children Let Rastas never die

When everything is going right
They forget about your presents
But when the tables turn upside down
They know that you' re there
To my mom who taught me
That you' re always there
I wrote this little
Song of praise
Now I' m gonna sing

Chorus: Jah live Jah children Let Rastas never die

The Rastaman call him Jah Some people call him Allah English man call Him God But he is one We may have different names To call him, but he cares For everyone that's why I Wrote this song
