

Lucky Twice, Push

The sweetest little rush has been going around
Youre gonna break, break, break, just a matter of time
Its spreading like a wild fire, running you down
Youve got the shake, shake, shake, and it cant be a crime
Now everybodys going crazy on a saturday night
Theyve got the rush, rush, rush, and theres no getting out
Now you and I could be amazing, dont you put up a fight here comes the push, push, push if youre ready or not Youve got the push
Ive got the push, push, Ive got the push
Theyve got the push
Weve got the push, push, weve got the push
Baby, you were born just to be here tonight
Youve got to move, move, move, dont go falling behind
Its all you ever wanted the time of your life
Youve got to prove, prove, prove, that youre one of a kind
Now everybody wants to lose it on a saturday night
Were gonna dance, dance, dance , cause its all that weve got Youve got the moves, its time to use em, step on into the light
Here comes the push, push, push, are you ready or not
Youve got the push
Ive got the push, push, Ive got the push
Theyve got the push
Weve got the push, push, weve got the push
When tomorrow comes well be gone
But remember this and youll never go wrong
Be the one you are, keep it true
That is all you can do
Youve got the push
Ive got the push, push, Ive got the push
Theyve got the push
Weve got the push, push, weve got the push
