

Lucy Lee, Don't Stop Asking

Thanks for asking
It's easy to imagine you and me together
It sounds like fun but I'm under the gun
Or maybe it's the weather
Sorry, so sorry
But tonight's not quite right
But don't stop asking
Well this feeling that you've got
Well it flatters me a lot
Can you please preserve it
Come circumstance can I get another chance
I must say I deserve it
Please don't take it personally
You can consider me an interested party
If this is love and I'm too busy
Oh wouldn't that be a pity
Have your people call my people
I wish that I was kidding
Sorry, so sorry
But tonight's not quite right
But don't stop asking
