

Luke Evans, Busy Breaking Yours

I left you at the airport
At the long haul gate
Couldn't watch you walk away
In case you'd look back at me
Then I left you at the restaurant
Half way through the second course
Paid the bill and then I walked
And said don't you follow me

We kept breaking up cause we were good at getting back together
If we had our way I know that you and me'd be doing it forever

It broke my heart breaking yours
Tore me apart close those doors
It wasn't my finest moment I tried to warn it
Forgive me for saying out loud
That my god it hurts it hurts to hurt you that much
I made it worse by still wanting us
To go through the fire without burning to fail without learning
Forgive me for saying out loud
That it broke my heart because I was busy breaking yours

You left me at the supermarket unfurled
You thought you'd been discreet but everyone heard
My dirty laundry never looked worse than my favourite shirt
You never looked better

We kept breaking up cause we were good at getting back together
If we had our way I know that you and me'd be doing it forever

It broke my heart breaking yours
Tore me apart close those doors
It wasn't my finest moment I tried to warn it
Forgive me for saying out loud
That my god it hurts it hurts to hurt you that much
I made it worse by still wanting us
To go through the fire without burning to fail without learning
Forgive me for saying out loud
That it broke my heart because I was

Busy breaking yours busy trying to hurt you
Busy trying to get you back you only to desert you
Busy being selfish knowing I could help it
Busy trying to hide the cracks we really should have dealt with
It broke my heart because I was busy breaking yours
