

Lullacry, Over Me

My only desire will
Bring all this to end

The longer I lay here alone
The louder it's calling me
It will always be there
Waiting for me

Another day has gone by
And the darkness falls

It's all over me
And it's coming down
Over me
In my anger I drown
It's all over me
And it's coming down
I couldn't see
It was written all over me

There's a fine line between
Need and obsession

The longer I lay here alone
The louder it's calling me
It will always be there
Waiting for me

Another day has gone by
And the darkness falls

It's all over me
And it's coming down
Over me
In my anger I drown
It's all over me
And it's coming down
I couldn't see
It was written all over me
