

Luna Halo, Bitter Sweet

Blood, sweat, and tears
Hunger, thirst, and pain
For you I'd go through everything
You're the reason why
I would walk through fire
And everything behind my dark desire

So I give and you take
And forget the heart you break
You're bittersweet

There's no other way
That's how it has to be
Me with you, and you with me
No I won't have less
You should know by now
I'm gonna get you somehow

So I give and you take
And forget the heart you break
And I fall at your feet
My obsessive memory
You're bittersweet

My heart is screaming
Are you listening?
I'm gonna make you mine, in time

So I give and you take
And forget the heart you break
And I fall at your feet
My obsessive memory
You're bittersweet
You're bittersweet (3x)
