

Luna Halo, Carry Me

You alone are right for me, my Lord
All along I lost myself in You
And I would rather be in the deep
Where I can hold on to You

And You can carry me
From the shallow to the deep
'Cause I can only see
When I'm standing on my knees
And I've been here before
When I wandered to the shore
'Cause I'm afraid to be
Where it's deeper than me
'Cause I'm in need

And if I loose myself in You
Will You be there to pull me through
In my darkest time of need
And if my hope begins to fade
And I start to slip away
Will You hold on to me
And if I gave it all to You
Would I wake to find Your arms
Ready to carry me away
And if I saw You face to face
Would I say...
