

Lunapop, Sight

"Sight"
Only i can kno what u do and when u cry i see all things i feel a shawdow touch me and a spirit which brings me wisdom and when my heart explodes its because i see you you are eeverything to me The sight of you
makes me smile
the sight of you
soon will be gone
and ill be alone one again Everything in my head shakes when pressure strengthens and the people laugh
i feel threaten
but i will not be attacked because i feel sorrow Soon everything will be normal by tommrow
The sight of you
makes me smile
the sight of you
soon will be gone
