

Lunik, Pretender

I smiled at you
But you didn't see
I asked you something
You didn't answer me
I touched you - felt nothing
'Cause you're not here anymore

"2 times:"
Stop pretending to sleep in your bed
Stop pretending to dream

I sat near you
You didn't even notice
I told you stories
You didn't listen nor hear anything
I looked at you for a long while
But you didn't wake up for looking at me
'Cause you're not here anymore

"2 times:"
Stop pretending to sleep in your bed
Stop pretending to dream

I closed the window slowly
'Cause I was freezing
'Cause I was freezing
So finally I understood
That you're not here anymore
You're not here anymore

"7 times:"
I disclosed you my love
That you didn't return
A wolf yelled at the moon
It broke the silence in me
