

Lunik, Slide

there's this black knot inside of me it can't be cried away it will stay forever part of me I accepted it one day
it can't be beaten out I'm not its master
not its friend sometimes I think that it has gone later when I'm on my own I don't

don't you try
to ease my pain
I need to brood i need to cry
let me rest let me be let me suffer passionately I'm on a psychologic slide I'm on a melancholic ride walking on a flimsy rope I need nothing to fall With these forces I can't cope I'm interior and small at their first opportunity they attack me from the back again I turn off the phone feel a sudden sense of calm

leave me now and I will rise
when the darkness
turns to light I'll tackle my day
climb the mountain
stay awhile
enjoy the sight
until i slide
again
