

Lush, Cat's Chorus

( hypocrite ep )

Drinking

Sitting in a corner smiling to the others

Arriving here we are again.

Talking

Telling all out stories laughing at the thins

That we've all been though over all the years

And as the hours pass 'til midnight

We'll sing together in the moonlight

And looking back to when we first met

We seemed so different so many years passed so much time

And we're still here whatever times may come don't ever change

Oh we'll be laughing in the moonlight singing songs 'til midnight bunny,

Kate, & emma, maxine and melissa laughing in the moonlight.
