

Luther Vandross, They Said You Needed Me

Goodbye, so long
Were the last words from you
Seems like youre over
All the goodness we knew
You think that youre strong
You think that you dont
You dont need no one
Well, I was talkin to some of your friends
Just to see how everyone was doin
And they said you needed me
Said it was something youd never admit
But it was hard to see you going through it
They said you needed me
Guess Ill suffer til Im where I belong
Im under the pressure
But Ill keep being strong
You say that youre strong
You say that you dont need anyone
What in the world are you telling your friends
I get confused every time I see them
They said you needed me
I know the people talk just for the thrill
But the fact of the matter is still
They said you needed me
Take your time, re-invent your mind
Youll feel better, youll feel stronger
Then decide if Im in your life
For forever or longer
You think that youre strong
You think that you dont
You dont need no one
Well, I was talkin to some of your friends
Just to see how everyone was doin
And they said you needed me
Said it was something youd never admit
But it was hard to see you going through it
They said you needed me
