

Lutricia McNeal, 365 Days

Chorus :

Where will I be 365 days from now

Tell me

How will I feel 365 night without you

Oh what would I do?

I remember what you used to say

Things won't tumble down

Now we're here and finally it changed

When I'm standing on the ground

I don't understand

When did we go wrong?

And I can't imagine

Repeat Chorus

Now it feels like we're drifting apart

Things are not what they used to be

Now I know it's written in your heart

You don't wanna be a part of me

I don't understand

What did I do wrong?

And I can't imagine

Repeat Chorus

Oh what would I do

Tell me

I've been trying so hard

Not to let it show

But deep within my feelings

They glow

Before you leave me and let me go

Something I need to know

Repeat Chorus

365 nights without you
