

LuvBug, Best Is Yet To Come

I've been lost and I've been broken,
I've been down the bottle hoping,
I'm still reaching for the sun,
Coz my best is yet to come,
I've been rich and I've been poor,
Had the houses lost them all,
But my father told me son,
"Your best is yet to come"

I've been lost and I've been broken,
I've been down the bottle hoping,
I'm still reaching for the sun,
Coz my best is yet to come,
I've been rich and I've been poor,
Had the houses lost them all,
But my father told me son,
"Your best is yet to come,"

So, let it go, Let it go,
Coz we always make mistakes,
When were young,
Coz out best it yet to come,
So let it roll, let it roll,
All the haters,
They said that we were dumb,
But out best it yet to come /3x

Ain't no trick to get me down! /5x
