

Lux Occulta, Apokathastasis

now i drown into The Light where do these visions come from?

of me naked, drawing cyphers on a sand letters and sings never known to me it's me again, making sculptures of ice that melts under light touch of my lips (i'm) impotent creator of cold, lifeless shapes glare of your world on fire reflects in my eyes now i bath my sword in hot blood of infants now i kill everything you have ever loved the world explodes when i awake!

married to The Light i copulate with the sun now my body turns into star now the star becomes my soul now my soul swallows the world now my inner world becomes The God

I am The Skeleton Of Universe
I am The All-Father
I am The Might
Light (lux occulta)
