

Luxx, Secret Garden

When I thought you were wrong for me
All those signs I was meant to see
Just a friend but I didn't know
It started from here

I can't say I felt this before
Feelings I cannot ignore
Everything is about to change
I know that it's true, from that one look at you

Why should I pretend
To hell with the consequences-it's me and you
If I were to look at you
The way that I wanted to
I'd give away our Secret Garden

No fear inside of me, I'm just where I'm meant to be and with you I will always stay
I know that it's time when I look at you

Why should I pretend
To hell with the consequences-it's me and you
If I were to look at you
The way that I wanted to
I'd give away our Secret Garden

From the time you reached for me
I gave myself instinctively
And I will fight for this memory
And I won't let it end
No I won't let it end

Why should I pretend
To hell with the consequence-it's me and you
If I were to look at you
The way that I wanted to
I'd give away our Secret Garden.
