

Luxx, Will I Burn

I know what your thinking
I feel it everyday
A bed made of excuses in the sky
It shows in every way

I've held on to secrets
Especially from you
Guarded by the fears I have inside
I'm keeping all that is true

Don't you want me to be with you at all?
Will I burn if I don't believe it's you?
When the blood turns to wind
Then I'll know, it's true
Don't you want me?

Imagine all your reasons
Still trapped up in the sky
Tell me, do you sleep with all your dreams?
I bet you don't even try

Don't you want me to be with you at all?
Will I burn if I don't believe it's you?
When the blood turns to wine
Then I'll know it's true
Don't you want me?
