

Lyfe, Let's Stay Together

Lalalalala la.....ohhhhhhhh we gon' put some people back together today ha

Lalalalala somebody gon' thank me after this song man

Lalalalala matter of fact I'm gon' thank me right now haha wooh

Lalalalala ooh

Girl I apologize I'm to blame

And I can't sympathize with your pain

If I could I'd make it go away, but I can't

So I concentrate on more realistic things

Like questioning is there anything here worth salvaging

(Bridge:)

Is it over, how do we go about deciding

Do we add up all the good times then divide them

By how many times we hurt each other

Or do we just ignore the numbers

And vow right now that nothing gonna take us under

(Chorus:)

Let's stay together

Can we agree to just disagree

Let's stay together

Don't do it for the kids do it for me

Let's stay together

I'm tired of all this making up and breaking up

Let's stay together

Girl I can't justify for what I've done ain't got no reasons why, not even one

I pray to God what seems like every morning for the sun to shine on us just one more time and let me hold you in my arms and we just cry

(Bridge)

(Chorus)

(Breakdown:)

See if you leave

I will not die physically

But emotionally &quot;You might as well bury me&quot;

Said if I can't be the man I should've been before all of this happened.

But if we hold on &quot;And ask god for direction...&quot;

when we get lost we can make the correction if we just stand strong all our ups and downs have finally come around

And there will be nothing that can shake us nothing that can break us and we will stay together!!!

(Chorus x2)

(Put your hands together man, let's go)

Let's stay together

(Lyfe talking:)

This is where it all comes to a head at

Are all these years worth nothing,

Is it over?

You don't wanna be with him, he don't wanna be with you.

Hell you done made some mistakes too.

He done made some mistakes you done made some mistakes before man,

Work it out man.

And you dudes out there

Anybody can be slick at talking

Anybody can be slick at talking, man

Try to be slick at listening, man

Your work is at home

It ain't in the streets, it's at home

So get there, get there

And stay there.
