

Lykke Li, two nights (ft. Aminé)

2 nights in a row
where'd you go I've been smoking
2 nights in a row
now I know that it's broken

somebody else
I think you're out there with someone else
somebody else
I think you might be with someone else

I left all the lights on I've been sleeping with no cloths on you never came home

2 nights in a row
where'd you go I've been smoking
2 nights in a row
now I know that it's broken you've been dancing with somebody on the streets with somebody
2 nights in a row
where'd you go I've been smoking

nobody else you say there's no one, but I can tell all by myself
why can't you need me and nothing else?

I left all the lights on sleeping with no clothes on baby I've been staring at a blank phone you never came home

2 nights in a row
where'd you go I've been smoking
2 nights in a row
now I know that it's broken
you've been dancing with somebody
on the streets with somebody
2 nights in a row
where'd you go I've been smoking
