

Lykke Li, Window Blues

I sleep with windows open I sleep with eyes wide in case you would come walk in in case you change your mind but don't strain yourself for me don't break yourself for me don't lose your selfish ways for me.

I keep a leash around you and I keep it nice and tight in case you would go walking over forbidden lines

but don't go all soft on me don't come across for me don't lose your selfish ways over me.

une, deux, trois
quatre, cinq, seis,
a hundred times around you keep on flunking out keep me wanting more

quatre, cinq, seis,
a hundred times is fine for you I go all blind

oh my, where is my mind?

I keep my window open.
I keep it open wide so keep me keep it open oh keep me on your mind
