

Lyle Lovett, I Will Rise Up/Ain't No More Cane

In the darkest hour
In the dead night
As the storm clouds gather
And the lightning strikes

And the thunder rolls
And the cold rain blows
The future it holds
What God only knows

And I will rise up
"(And I will rise up)"
Though I be a dead man
"(I said yes and amen)"
And I will stand tall
"(And I will stand tall)"
Until I meet my end
"(Until I meet my end)"

You should have been on the river
Back in nineteen and four
You could have found you a dead man
Lord at every turn row

And I will rise up
"(And I will rise up)"
Though I be a dead man
"(I said yes and amen)"
And I will stand tall
"(And I will stand tall)"
Until I meet my end
"(Until I meet my end)"

You should have been on the river
Back in nineteen and ten
They were working the women
Like they were working the men

And I will rise up
"(And I will rise up)"
Though I be a dead man
"(I said yes and amen)"
And I will stand tall
"(And I will stand tall)"
Until I meet my end
"(Until I meet my end)"

Now Captain don't do me
Like you done poor Shine
Now you done worked that bully
Until he been stone blind

And I will rise up
"(And I will rise up)"
Though I be a dead man
"(I said yes and amen)"
And I will stand tall
"(And I will stand tall)"
Until I meet my end
"(Until I meet my end)"

Now there's some in the kitchen
And there's some on the farm
And there's some in the graveyard
