

Lynch Mob, Time After Time

Time, time falls apart
Never lets me go
Like I'm falling from the sky
My, my head hits the floor
I haven't slept all night
Thoughts fill my eyes

I see the world around me
Feels like it's closing in
Living my lies

I, I walk out the door
So don't let me in
Cause I'll do it again
Time, time after time
I've been here before
To hell and back again

Time always letting me down
Suffering as the sun goes down on me
I see heavens while I walk through flames
Feel it in my veins

I see the world around me
Feels like it's closing in
Living my lies

I, walk out the door
So don't let me in
Cause I'll do it again
Time, time after time
I've been here before
To hell and back again
