

Lynch Pilson, Beast In The Box

I remember when I was no one
You told me I was worthless, I was down and out
So, so won't you tell me where I've gone wrong
Cuz it burns to be inside you

Listen what the preacher says
Evil things inside your head- and all around
I won't sleep I must confess
Til the creature's laid to rest

Bury the BEAST IN THE BOX
Laying it down the hard way
Bury the BEAST IN THE BOX
Never coming back again

I just thought I'd let you know
That this rainbow got no pot of gold- no not at all
I've gotta exercise some self-control
The way you work it all the time, work it all the time

Listen what the preacher says
Til the creature's laid to rest

Laying it down the hard way
Never coming back again
