

M.O.P., Who Is M.O.P.??

[Li'l Fame]

Say what, say what, say what?

[both]

I'm packin blue steel (3x)

[VERSE 1: Li'l Fame]

Plow! I'm shootin muthafuckas in the belly

Spread em like jelly, play em like skelly

I'm representin for the real niggas

Fake moves, make moves, you fuck around, I have to kill niggas

I pack a nine that have em wanna box

With a gun or I can knock em out the box with a ox

Niggas gotta pay the piper then

And I know you're mad, cocksucker, because it ain't no type of wins

Niggas throw rhymes, I throw rhymes back

If niggas wanna throw crime, I throw crimes back

If niggas wanna throw props, I throw props back

Them niggas wanna throw shots, I throw em back and lay em flat

So if you ever think of tryin to get loose

I do your ass like Bishop did Rahiem in Juice

Kid, I'm tellin you now you can't afford it

And I bust a nigga ass quick on the mic that's extorted

Crazed, I rock for days on blaze with Laze E Laze

You niggas get blazed, the Fame can't be fazed

Huh, you couldn't make us for a try out, punk, you die out

I wet shit up even when I got the dry mouth

It's time I let em know the deal

Nowadays shit is real, so I'm packin blue steel

[Billy Danzenie]

Say what, say what, say what?

[both]

When you come, you better be armed, son, see, I works with mine

You know what's happenin to you, it's 'hammer time'

Out the streets a real raw man

I'm top dog, man, I'm your connection with the morgue man

For my peoples I put 2 in your face

(Clack-clack) ?????? with some ??????

Cause Danzine ain't fakin no jammers

A herb nigga tremor, real niggas ??????
