

M People, Angel St.

If you think the world owes you a ride,
you'll never find the reason why.
Boy you know it's down to you

Looking down, you'll only see your own two feet
Mumma used to say to me
take a walk down Angel Street.

So sweet thing (ooh)
Have I got news for you! (ooh)
Come and taste my soul food (ooh)
So what have you got to lose?

Angel Street, stand on you own two feet
Cos baby can't you see?
If we're to stay alive only the strong survive.

Don't you know, if you can't respect yourself
You'll be left on the shelf.
No-one's gonna carry you.

Walkin' tall, dreaming of love and pride.
Reaching up to the sky.
Arms and eyes are open wide

So come on, let's climb the stairs out of this.
Make a wish steal a kiss.
Boy what have you got to lose?

[Chorus]
