

Maarja, First In Line

Constricted dreams
that sleeps in my mind now seem to guide me in my daily life I raise a glass for those tears gone by A ray of hope upon my newborn eyes

I'm turning to the window
full of memories
I'm turning to the frontstep
with keys

I'm gonna get first in line
from a jack to a king
wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
letting go, my heart of stone

I'm gonna get first in line
from a jack to a king
wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
letting go, my heart of stone

Getting first in line/getting first this time letting everything go
Getting first this time/getting first in line
let the whole world know

This mighty sword's full of dust but it thrives
I wipe it clean and let it come alive I'm all made up by the things that I feel Too many words can turn your heart into steel

I'm turning to the window
full of memories
I'm turning to the frontstep
with keys

from a jack to a king
wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
letting go, my heart of stone

wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
letting go, my heart of stone

with keys

wanting everything

wanting everything

I'm gonna get first in line
wanting everything

I'm gonna get first in line
wanting everything
