

Maarja, First In Line

Constricted dreams that sleeps in my mind now seem to guide me in my daily life I raise a glass for those tears gone by A ray of hope upon my newborn eyes

I'm turning to the window full of memories
I'm turning to the frontstep
with keys

I'm gonna get first in line
from a jack to a king
wanting everything
Gonna get first this time letting go, my heart of stone

I'm gonna get first in line
from a jack to a king
wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
letting go, my heart of stone

Getting first in line/getting first this time letting everything go
Getting first this time/getting first in line let the whole world know

This mighty sword's full of dust but it thrives
I wipe it clean and let it come alive I'm all made up by the things that I feel Too many words can turn your heart into steel

I'm turning to the window
full of memories
I'm turning to the frontstep
with keys

from a jack to a king
wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
letting go, my heart of stone

wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
letting go, my heart of stone

with keys
