

Macbeth, Without you

What weve learnt from our bad dream
Is that no one will ever know
Why a smile is so fragile?
How a word can make you cry?

Ive been searching in my soul for
Those sad words to say goodbye
My world begins and ends with you
Stand by me till candles die

We are face to face
With starry eyes
We are heart to heart
Please dont lie
Love me tonight
I cant live

Without you
Things will never be the same again
Without you
Dig deeper in your burning soul
Without you
No more tears left to wash away
Without you
I cant live a day without you

Time wont heal our broken wings
One more sleepless night will come
I just wanna disappear
But my love still remains

Ive been searching in my soul
Those sad words to say goodbye
My world begins and ends with you
Stand by me till candles die

We are face to face
With starry eyes
We are heart to heart
Please dont lie
Love me tonight
I cant live

Without you
Things will never be the same again
Without you
Dig deeper in your burning soul
Without you
Without you
I cant live a day without you
