

Machine Gun Kelly, forget me too (ft. Halsey)

Let me take my fucking bracelet off

You want me to forget
Okay
Foget me too

You tell me you tte me, baby
Yeah,
I bet you do!

Damn
I saw you walk in the room and i tried my best
Not to panic while i am looking for the back door
I smelled the perfume and it's obvious
I am gonna stay and put my key in the bag more
I can't /3x
Pretend to forget
You're the reason i punched a hole in the wall back home
And then /3x
A couple hours later
We're in room 29 at The Chateau

I left before you woke up
I don't feel light
(Seeing you sober)

You want me to forget
Okay
Foget me too

You tell me you tte me, baby
Yeah,
I bet you do!

Iam keeping you waiting
But i won't wait on you
Want me to forget
Okay
Foget me too

[Halsey]
I've wasted so much time
Waiting around for you phone calls every night
My bad dreams are silk acreened
Cause i taste blood when you bleed
It's eating me alive
We'd both be better off alone
Still think i'd get you on the phone
With on elast breathe in me
I'd die before i let you leave

I left before you woke up
Why don't i ever see you sober?

You want me to forget
Okay
Foget me too

You tell me you tte me, baby
Yeah,
I bet you do!

Iam keeping you waiting
But i won't wait on you

Want me to forget
Okay
Foget me too
