

MACKLEMORE, SHADOW (FEAT. IRO)

[IRO]

got me straight up drinkin' from the barrel I've been losin' hour singin' sad songs underneath the gallows
running from my shadow

I need relief, I need some peace but the voices, they keep talking to me and I keep going to meeting I pray every evening but I can't escape my disease lookin' at me stare in the mirror look at the man starin' back at you you are your failures you are your triumphs you are a prophet, you are an asshole you are the devil and you are a god you buy a shovel and bury it all think you can purchase your way right out of the void and not end up payin' the cost? lie to yourself, lie to them, hell whatever helps, forgotten what's real you think the secrets you keep saty between you and me but shadow's attached to your heels, like

I've been losin' hours

I let it rain through the sunroof I've been parked out by the waterfront been going to war with myself reading Sun Tzu, bumpin' Tha Carter I I'm back n day two forgot who the target was I thought I was over this this isn't what sober is What kind of dad would hold their kids

[IRO]

running from my shadow

runnin', I am runnin'
I can't get away, away, away chasin' me down every night and all day, and all day, and all day,
I can't get away, away, away
and all day, and all day, and all day,
runnin', I am runnin'
I can't get away, away, away
and all day, and all day, and all day,
