

MACKLEMORE, Trump's Over Freestyle

(Ha, ha, that's enough, that's enough, that's enough!)
Fifty grand I get this all in one take, ayy
(Turn it up!)

Now, all you high-fiving MAGA white boys drinking White Claws
Care about your taxes more than human rights, sign off
You no mask-wearing, big truck-driving
"Blue lives matter," talking shit about the riots
Double standard once the white folks went and tried it
"They're patriots," no, those are terrorists, Brian
And all you liberals out there being silent
While black people dying at the hands of police violence
That care more about animal rights and recycling
And bicycling and the climate and toothpaste with iron
You, too, are complicit, you, too, getting brought up
I'll give it to you pro bono, you, too, are the problem
I'm white there with ya, silence on all us
Comfy in my privilege like, "Should I risk all this?"
Yes, and if you think I care to lose you as a fan
Peace out, bitch, you know exactly where I stand

Trump's over, he lost (He lost)
Social media kicked him off, he gone (He gone)
Throw a party on the White House lawn, retire the liar
Impeach that orange ho, so long (You're fired)
Trump's over, he lost (He lost)
Social media kicked him off, he gone (Yeah)
Throw a party on the White House lawn, retire the liar
Impeach that orange ho, so long

It's like Trump is just a symptom that we ain't free from
Just old white supremacy that he would feed us
We celebrating, but to think a new era's begun
Still half the country feels the same way that he does, so
What the fuck are we gonna do now?
Biden my dog, but he's close to getting put down
Surprise, another old white guy in the House
Who's fine, we just hold our breath when he opens his mouth
We thought 2021 was gonna save us
We thought that we were gonna all love our neighbors
We thought COVID was over being contagious
Nope, America still armed, dumb, and dangerous

Trump's over, he lost (He lost)
Social media kicked him off, he gone (He gone)
Throw a party on the White House lawn, retire the liar
Impeach that orange ho, so long (You're fired)
Trump's over, he lost (He lost)
Social media kicked him off, he gone (Yeah)
Throw a party on the White House lawn, retire the liar
Impeach that orange ho, so long (You're fired)

Dad, wait one second
Look, I want you to say the rest of the part and then I say
"Donald Trump is gone!
Donald Trump's gone, sick-a-nin-nin town?
Got that voice, now sick-a-nin-nin lime?"
